NAVALNY LIST 50

acf.

Here is the Navalny List of 50 created by Alexei Navalny's colleagues and family members as a political response to his murder by Vladimir Putin on February 16, 2024.

This crime can not go unpunished. An effective way to respond to the murder of Russia's main opposition leader, in a country gripped by dictatorship and embroiled in a war for the past two and a half years, is to target the small group of individuals who are personally important to Putin or play a crucial role in his regime. This list includes members of Putin's inner circle, oligarchs who finance the war and support the dictator, and key enablers of the regime who are difficult to replace. We've also included subjects of Navalny's investigations, honoring his fight against Russian corruption, which has fueled this authoritarian regime.

Sanctioning those few people who matter to Putin is not just a way to hold him accountable for this specific crime, but also targets the vulnerabilities of a dictator who unleashed the largest war of the 21st century.

Only a few from this list have been sanctioned by the United Kingdom.

For each individual, we've provided a brief explanation of why they should be subject to international pressure. This list isn't linked to any specific sanctions regime, but each description is backed by open-source publications from reputable media, which can be used as evidence.

Vladimir Putin should not go unpunished. Every opportunity to hold him responsible for his crimes must be taken.

Putin's inner circle

Nº	Person	Description
1	Chubais Anatoly Borisovich Чубайс Анатолий Борисович  16/06/1955  male	In 1996, Anatoly Chubais proposed Putin for the position of the Deputy Chief of the Presidential Property Management Department. Alongside the family members of the first President of Russia, Boris Yeltsin, Chubais actively promoted Vladimir Putin as the successor to the presidency. He enjoyed Vladimir Putin's patronage throughout his tenure as President of Russia as a reward for his efforts in advancing Putin's candidacy to the highest state position. Specifically, Anatoly Chubais was appointed as the CEO of the State Corporation Russian Corporation of Nanotechnologies (JSC RUSNANO) and held this position from 2008 to 2020. Despite the company's losses, widespread corruption, and inefficiencies, Anatoly Chubais remained its leader, deriving illicit income from his position. After leaving RUSNANO, Anatoly Chubais held positions in the management of Sistema AFK PAO, owned by oligarch Vladimir Evtushenkov, who is close to Vladimir Putin. Concurrently with his role at AFK Sistema PAO, Anatoly Chubais served as the President's special representative for ties with international organizations until the end of March 2022. Following the onset of Russia's military invasion of Ukraine, he did not publicly condemn Vladimir Putin's actions, despite his personal role in fostering Putin's ascent to power and bolstering his regime for more than two decades.
2	Gergiev Valery Abisalovich Гергиев Валерий Абисалович  02/05/1953  male	World-renowned Russian conductor, artistic director, and Chief Executive of the Mariinsky Theatre since 1988, and Chief Executive of the Bolshoi Theatre since 2023. A long-time close friend and supporter of Vladimir Putin, he benefits financially from his close relationship with the President of Russia. According to an investigation by the Anti-Corruption Foundation, he is implicated in financial manipulation and corruption in Russia. Gergiev has repeatedly violated anti-corruption laws by failing to declare his property and using his charitable foundation 'as his personal ATM'. He owns significant assets (including valuable and exclusive real estate) in Italy and the USA. He was an authorized surrogate for Vladimir Putin's presidential campaign. These surrogates ensured Putin's re-election in the non-competitive presidential election on March 18, 2018, despite his pursuit of an aggressive policy against Ukraine since 2014. In March 2014, Gergiev signed an open letter supporting Russia's annexation of Crimea and was among the 500 Russian cultural figures blacklisted by Ukraine from entering the country due to their support for Putin's position on Ukraine and Crimea.

34	Fradkov Pavel Mikhailovich Фрадков Павел Михайлович  03/09/1981  male	Deputy Minister of Defence of Russia since June 17, 2024. In this position, he oversees the management of property, land resources, and the construction of facilities for the needs of the Ministry of Defence. Manages a state agency of the Russian Federation that supports or implements actions or policies that undermine or threaten the territorial integrity, sovereignty, and independence of Ukraine. He is the son of Mikhail Fradkov, former Director of the Foreign Intelligence Service of the Russian Federation, and brother of Pyotr Fradkov, Chairman and CEO of Promsvyazbank. He has been implicated in and financially benefited from corruption schemes aimed at generating illicit income for politicians, government officials, and their families. Fradkov's office oversaw the acquisition of subsidized housing for low-income federal civil servants. However, in practice, most of these properties were allocated (often heavily subsidized) to wealthy and influential government officials and their family members, in violation of anti-corruption regulations."
35	Gabrelyanov Aram Ashotovich Габрелянов Арам Ашотович  10/08/1961  male	Media manager and editorial director of News Media Publishing House, which controls major propaganda projects (LIFE and Mash). He is one of the most influential figures in the field and is complicit in the propaganda and censorship that now pervade the Russian media landscape. He is a key perpetrator in the Russian hybrid information war, especially in its early stages. Additionally, Mr. Gabrelyanov was awarded the Order of Honor of Russia for 'high professionalism and objectivity in reporting on events in the Republic of Crimea'. Therefore, he is responsible for actively supporting or implementing actions or policies that undermine or threaten the territorial integrity, sovereignty, and independence of Ukraine, as well as stability and security in Ukraine. According to a public investigation by Alexei Navalny, he is involved in a corruption scheme for Moscow Mayor Sergei Sobyanin. The media controlled by him receive state funds from the budget of the city of Moscow for PR support for Sergei Sobyanin and the activities of the ruling political regime under the guise of providing services to the city of Moscow.

36	Goreslavsky Alexey Sergeevich Гореславский Алексей Сергеевич	Russian propagandist: journalist and media manager; head of the Institute for Internet Development (IRI) focusing on propaganda. According to journalistic investigations, this organization is one of the main administrators of state budget funds allocated for propaganda. Under Goreslavsky's leadership, the institute has become a quasi-state entity with a multi-billion budget, focused on 'granting funds for online military-patriotic education' and 'advancing the government's agenda'. From 2017 to 2020, he was an employee of the Presidential Administration, overseeing the Internet industry. Prior to this, he played a role in stifling independent media in Russia when he was appointed as the new editor-in-chief of the previously popular independent Lenta.ru in 2014. His appointment followed the dismissal of the previous editor-in-chief by the holding's owner, oligarch Aleksander Mamut. Subsequently, the media outlet was transformed into a semi-censored and state-controlled entity.
